

Daniel 1:1-3

Captives to Babylon

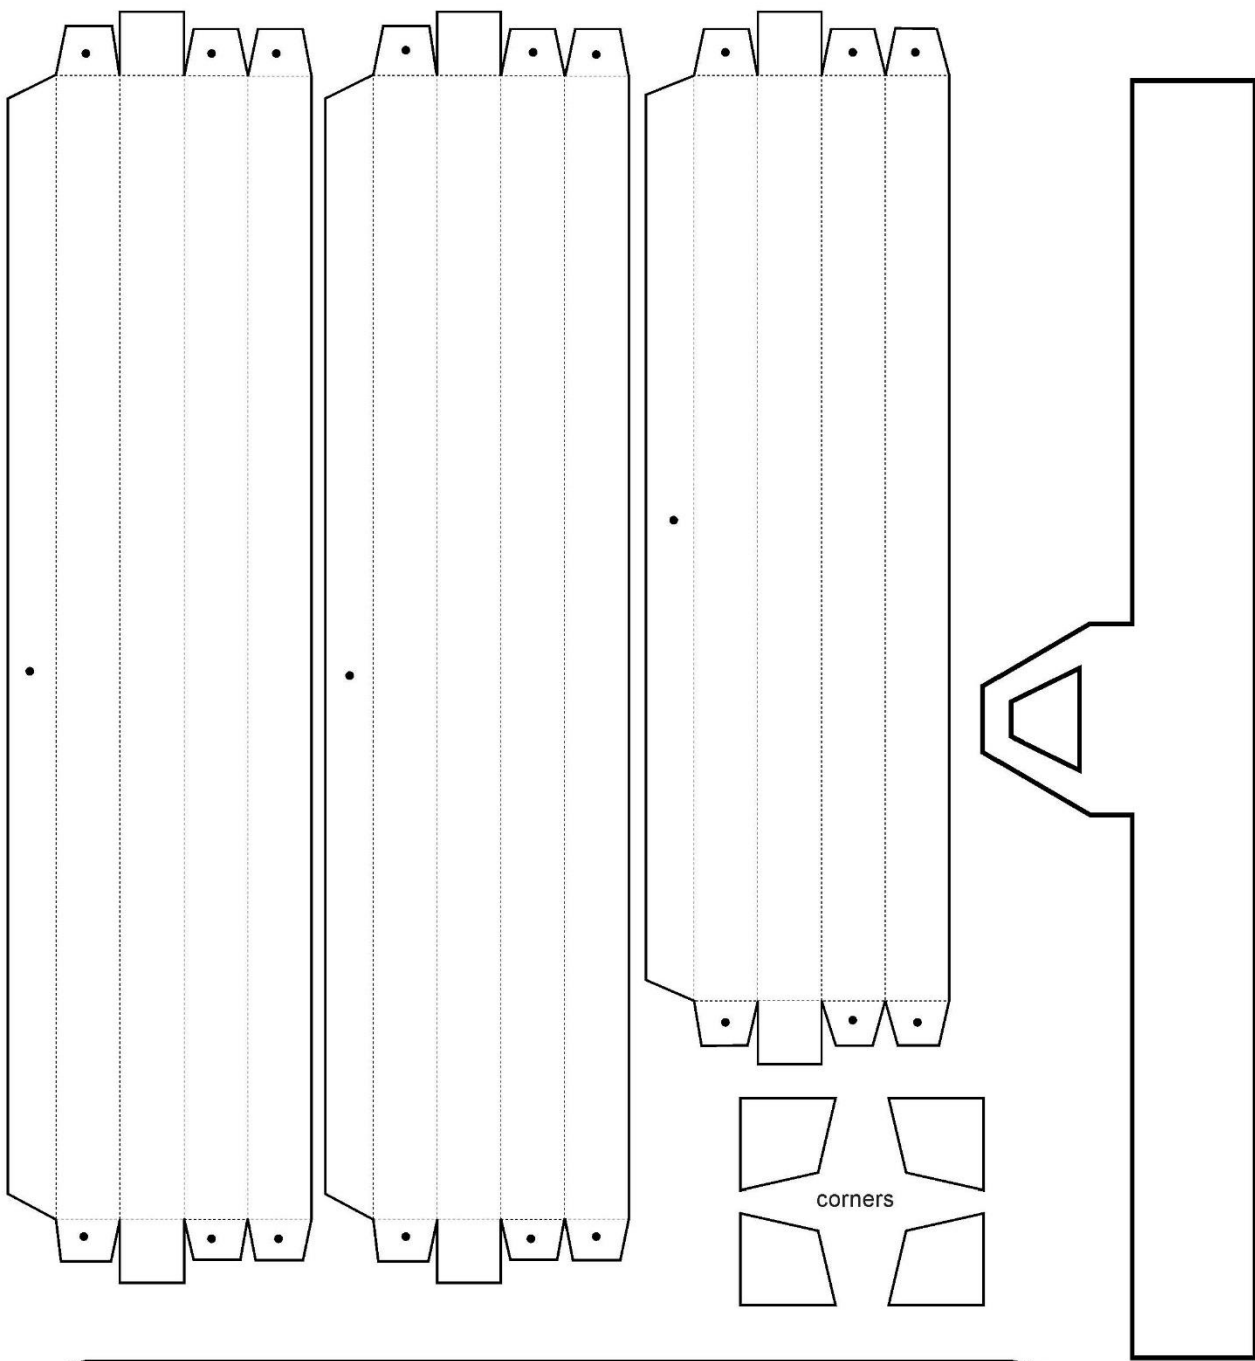

In the time of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked the city of Jerusalem. After capturing Jerusalem and seizing some of the Temple treasures, Nebuchadnezzar returned to Babylon taking with him Israelite prisoners. Among them were many young noblemen sons. The Bible tell us the story of four of them, who were given the Babylonian names Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego and Belteshazzar.

Belteshazzar had been known as Daniel in the Hebrew language.

In the book of Daniel you can read about these young men and how they stood for their belief and faith in God.

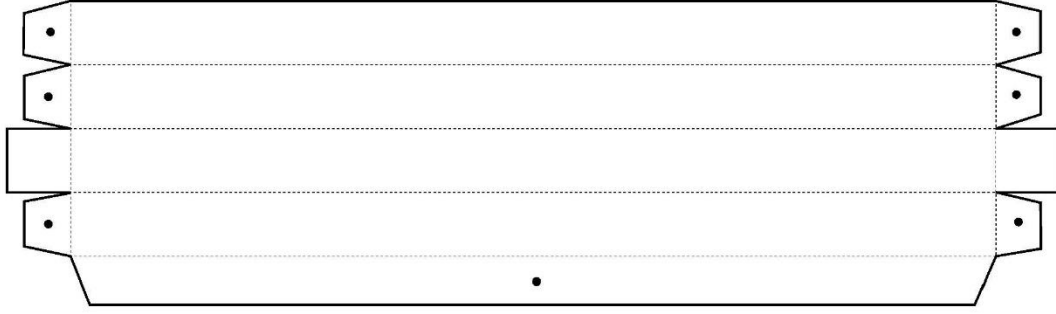

Due to their examples of diligence and trustworthiness, God was able to raise them up to important positions of responsibility in the king's court where Daniel helped the king through his God-given skills of interpreting visions and dreams.

You can read their amazing story in the Book of Daniel, chapters 1 to 4
