

Train Up a Child in the Way He Should Go

While Paul was being held in a Roman prison, he wrote a letter to Timothy, a young man whom he had sent to Ephesus to strengthen the church.

Timothy's mother, Eunice, and his grandmother, Lois, had taught him as a boy to read and understand the Scriptures. Paul wrote to Timothy acknowledging their loving influence on him:

"Continue in the things which you have learned and have faith in, remembering who you learned from. From the time of your childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which has given you the wisdom of salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Even though the task ahead for Timothy was not easy, Paul commended him and encouraged him: "Let no man despise your youth; but be an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

You can read these different verses in 2 Timothy chapter 3, verses 14 to 15, 1 Timothy chapter 4, verse 12 and Proverbs chapter 22, verse 6

Train Up a Child in the Way He Should Go

While Paul was being held in a Roman prison, he wrote a letter to Timothy, a young man whom he had sent to Ephesus to strengthen the church.

Timothy's mother, Eunice, and his grandmother, Lois, had taught him as a boy to read and understand the Scriptures. Paul wrote to Timothy acknowledging their loving influence on him:

"Continue in the things which you have learned and have faith in, remembering who you learned from. From the time of your childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which has given you the wisdom of salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Even though the task ahead for Timothy was not easy, Paul commended him and encouraged him: "Let no man despise your youth; but be an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

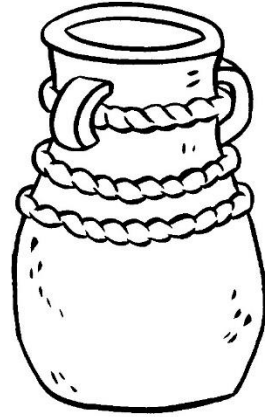

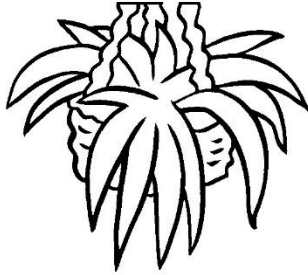

You can read these different verses in 2 Timothy chapter 3, verses 14 to 15, 1 Timothy chapter 4, verse 12 and Proverbs chapter 22, verse 6

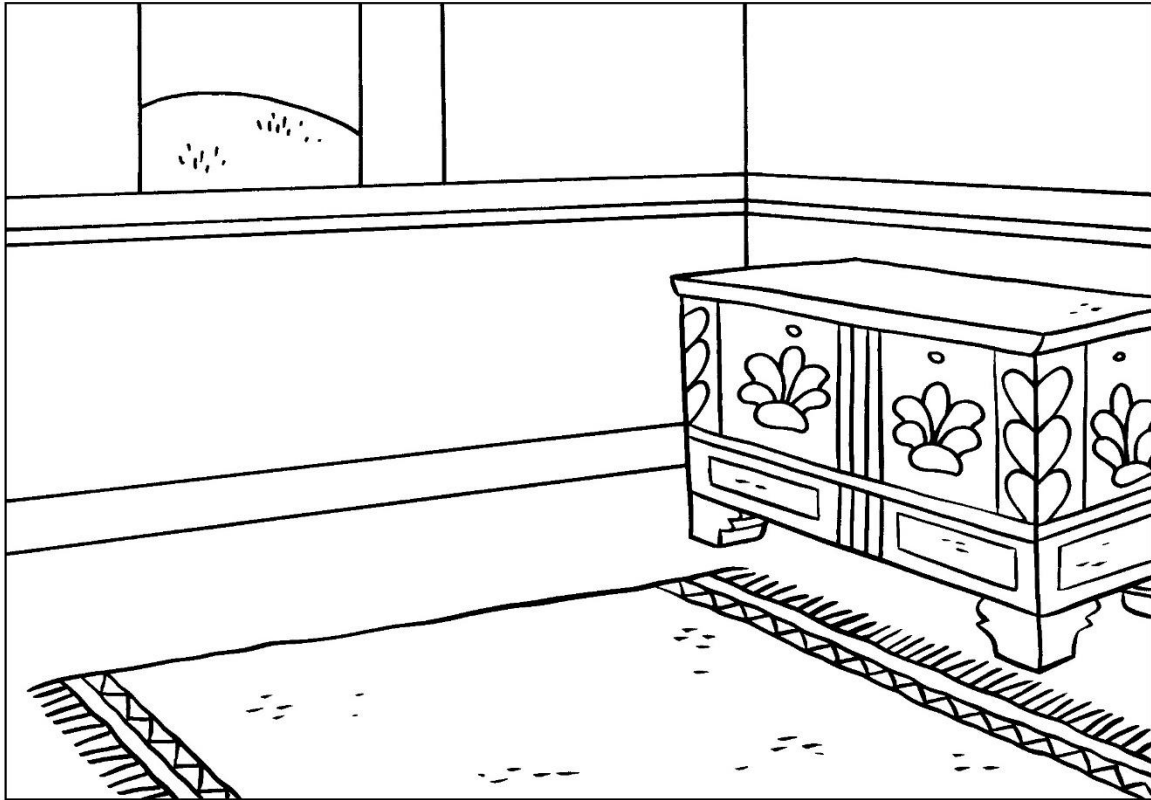

part to glue on the back

parts for the frame

Train Up a Child in the Way He Should Go

While Paul was being held in a Roman prison, he wrote a letter to Timothy, a young man whom he had sent to Ephesus to strengthen the church.

Timothy's mother, Eunice, and his grandmother, Lois, had taught him as a boy to read and understand the Scriptures. Paul wrote to Timothy acknowledging their loving influence on him:

"Continue in the things which you have learned and have faith in, remembering who you learned from. From the time of your childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which has given you the wisdom of salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Even though the task ahead for Timothy was not easy, Paul commended him and encouraged him: "Let no man despise your youth; but be an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

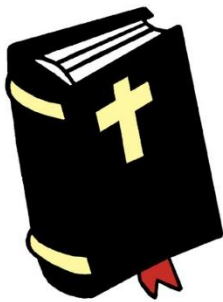

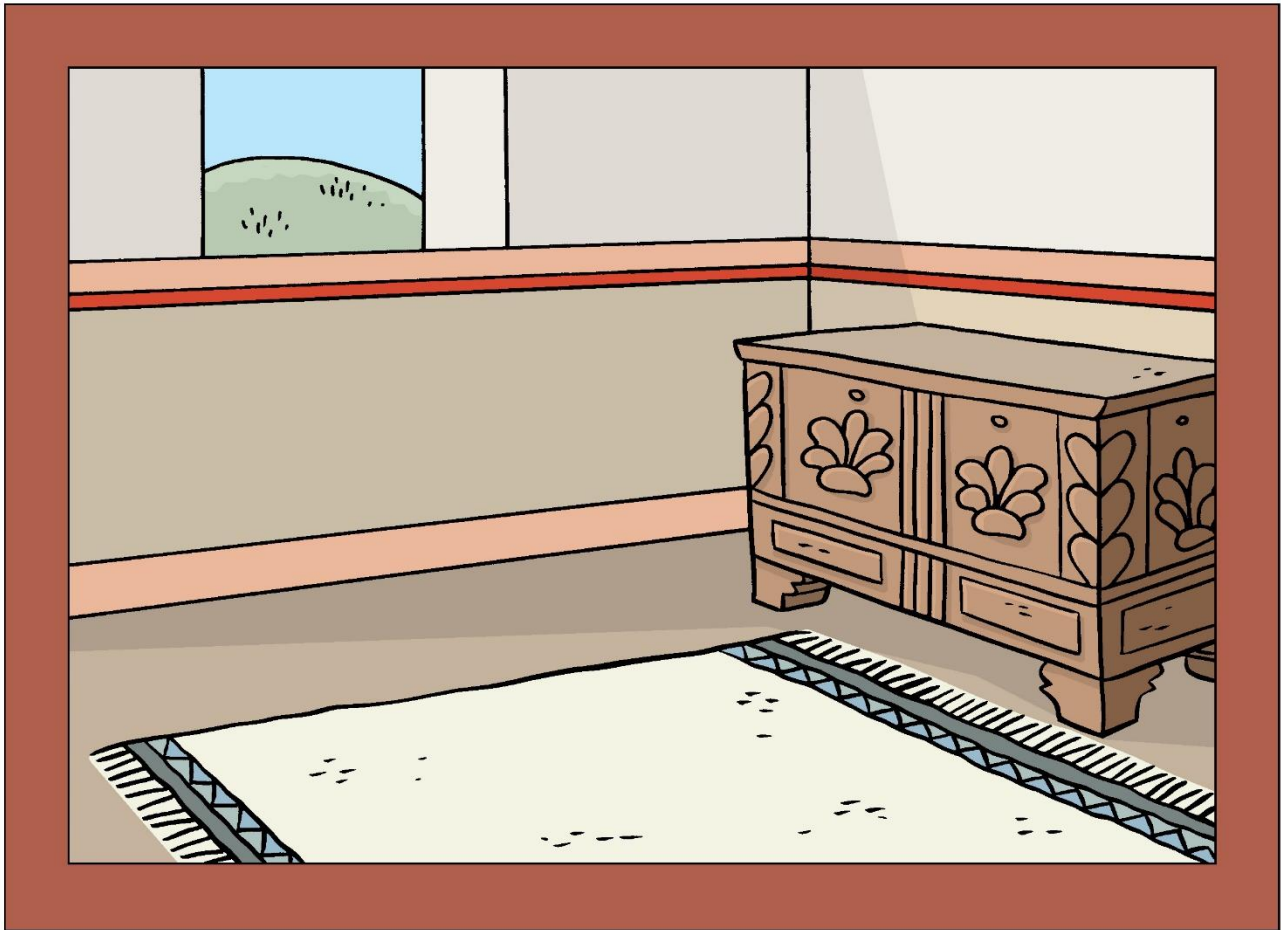

You can read these different verses in 2 Timothy chapter 3, verses 14 to 15, 1 Timothy chapter 4, verse 12 and Proverbs chapter 22, verse 6

part to glue on the back

parts for the frame

Train Up a Child in the Way He Should Go

While Paul was being held in a Roman prison, he wrote a letter to Timothy, a young man whom he had sent to Ephesus to strengthen the church.

Timothy's mother, Eunice, and his grandmother, Lois, had taught him as a boy to read and understand the Scriptures. Paul wrote to Timothy acknowledging their loving influence on him:

"Continue in the things which you have learned and have faith in, remembering who you learned from. From the time of your childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which has given you the wisdom of salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Even though the task ahead for Timothy was not easy, Paul commended him and encouraged him: "Let no man despise your youth; but be an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

You can read these different verses in 2 Timothy chapter 3, verses 14 to 15, 1 Timothy chapter 4, verse 12 and Proverbs chapter 22, verse 6

Timoteo

Desde tu niñez conoces las Sagradas Escrituras.

2 Timoteo 3:15

<http://ensinandooospequeninos.blogspot.com/>

